SARAH NETBURN, United States Magistrate Judge:

Plaintiffs have filed numerous letters under seal without leave of the Court. See ECF Nos. 285, 287, and 291. The Court's Individual Practices, § III(F) – which is expressly cited in the parties' Stipulated Protective Order, ¶ 9 at ECF No. 157 – require that any party that wants to file a document under seal must seek leave of the Court. Accordingly, for each document a party wishes to file under seal, they must file a separate letter motion.<sup>1</sup>

SO ORDERED.

<sup>1</sup> There is a presumption of public access for judicial documents, Nixon v. Warner Commc'ns, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 597 (1978). Discovery motions, along with their exhibits, are judicial documents, and in any event it is the Court, not the parties, who must make that determination. See id. at 599; Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 119 (2d Cir. 2006).
